

KXCV-KRNW DIVERSITY STATEMENT

Northwest Missouri State University and KXCV-KRNW is a community of people with respect for diversity. We welcome students, faculty, staff, visitors and our listeners with an array of differing backgrounds. The opportunity to make friends with people of different backgrounds and gain a better understanding of the world is one of the advantages of a diverse community. In the spirit of celebrating diversity, all are encouraged to learn about and appreciate people of different races, genders, ages, ethnicities, able-bodiedness, sexual orientations, socioeconomic status, or religious affiliations. Each person has worth and will be treated with dignity and respect. Northwest Missouri State University and KXCV-KRNW practice equal opportunity and will not condone discrimination. KXCV-KRNW is licensed by the FCC as a non-commercial public radio station that engages our community of listeners with cultural, educational, musical and informational programming that helps in promoting and providing news coverage of university, regional and local diversity activities, education and events.
